

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS28396 / S1076

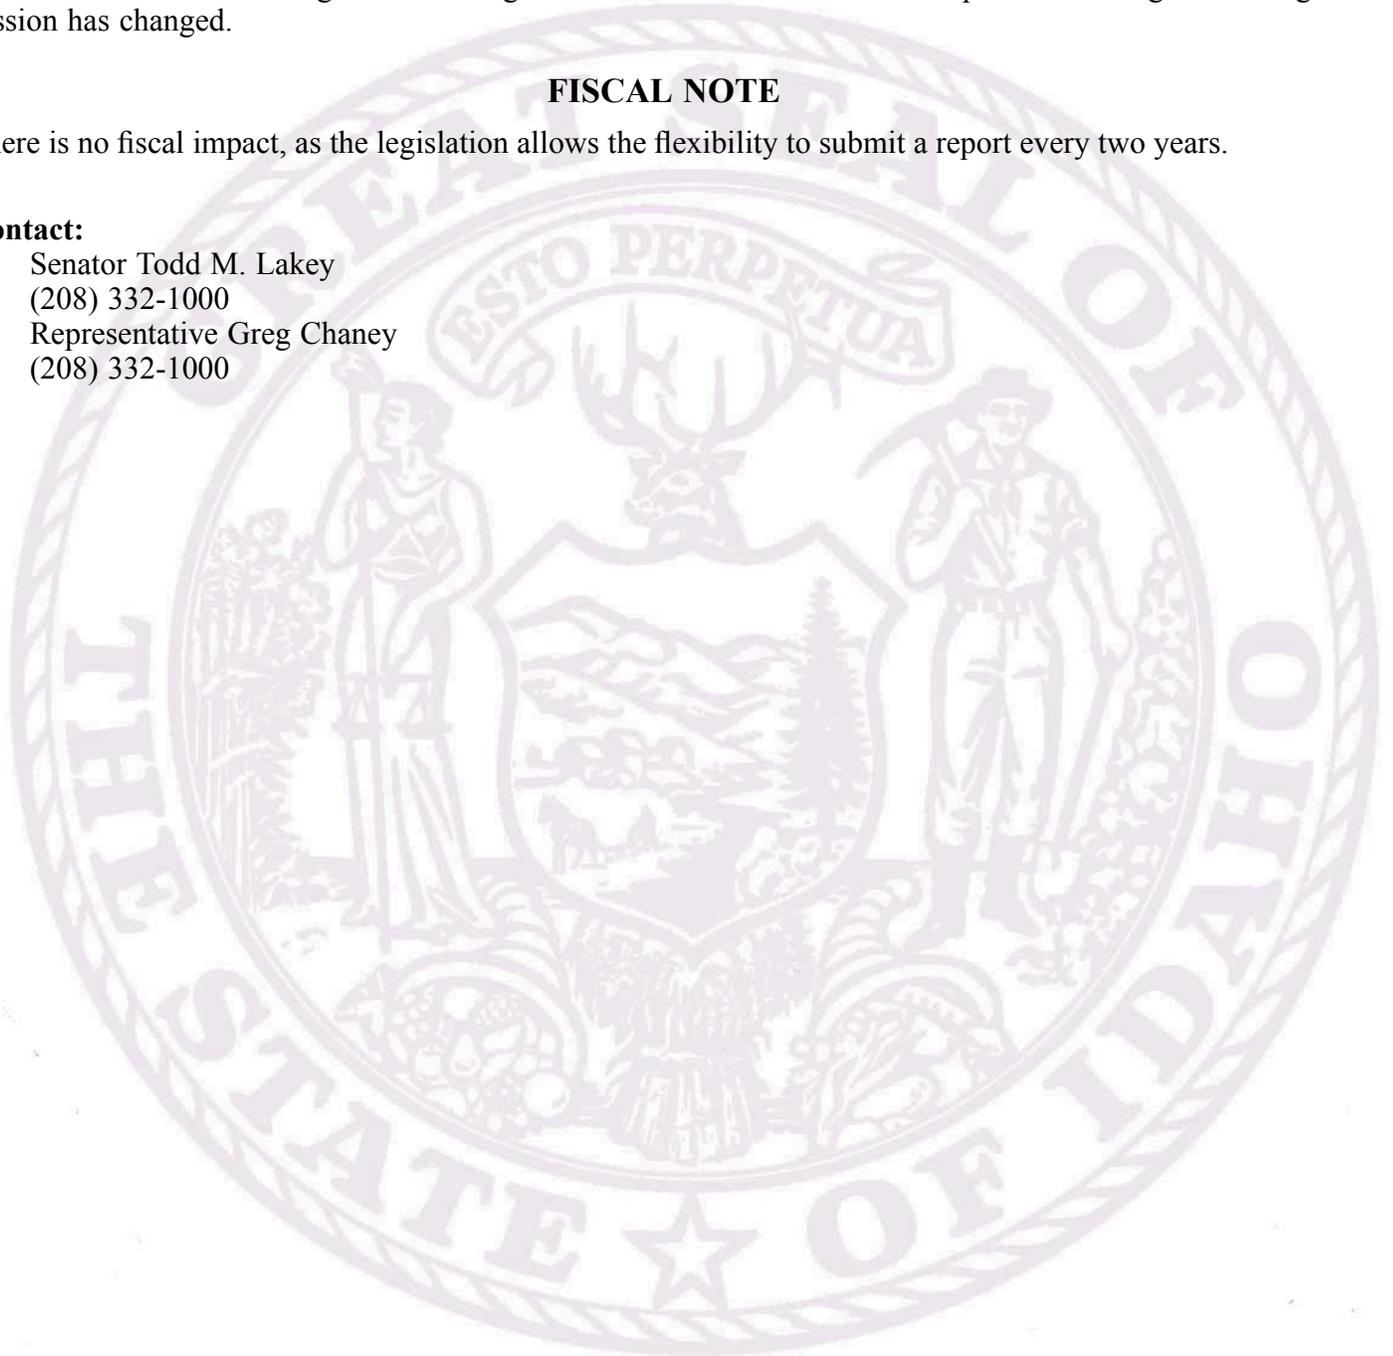

This legislation allows the Joint Printing Committee to submit their recommendation on the publication and distribution of the Session Laws to the legislature for both the first and second regular sessions. It still allows the committee to meet during the second regular session if the recommendation provided during the first regular session has changed.

FISCAL NOTE

There is no fiscal impact, as the legislation allows the flexibility to submit a report every two years.
